

Human Development GPA Requirement

- A Human Development GPA of 2.5 is required for graduation with a BA in Human Development. All students with 12 or more credits of HD course work attempted are expected to maintain a 2.5 or better each semester they are enrolled to make satisfactory progress toward the degree.
- Students with an HD GPA below a 2.5 will receive notice the first semester this occurs. If the HD GPA falls below a 2.5 in any subsequent semester prior to graduation, the student will be decertified from Human Development.
- Students who certify in Human Development are also required to earn a C grade or better in all courses required for the HD degree.

Student Signature (I have read and understand the above)